<s>WILLIAM: Okay, what flight were you on? ELIZABETH: Um-Seventeen. Coming from -- WILLIAM: On what airline?
ELIZABETH: It was Virgin Atlantic coming from London. WILLIAM: From London, okay. Um- And you went through all your proper checkpoints? ELIZABETH: Yeah, I don't know where it was lost. I was coming from Africa, so. WILLIAM: So you haven't seen your bags since Africa. You flew threw Heath Row to here. ELIZABETH: Right. ELIZABETH: Yeah. WILLIAM:
Okay. Well, let me see here. I- WILLIAM: It seems like it went through Heath Row. I see it here. uh- ELIZABETH:
That's good. WILLIAM: But uh- I don't see it here in the airport yet. uh WILLIAM: I'm not sure where it is. We can absolutely keep an eye out for for it for you. ELIZABETH: Well, I can't leave without it. I mean, Could you find out? WILLIAM: Well, I'm not a miracle worker. I don't know what I can do for you. I don't have the bag right here.
ELIZABETH: Right, well can you get on the computer maybe and like track it down and see when it's going to get here?
WILLIAM: Well, as I told you, it left Heath Row and it seems to have arrived here. But if you can't find it, thenare you sure you know what your bag looks like? ELIZABETH: Yes, sir, I know what my bag looks like. WILLIAM: Okay, and what is that? What kind of bag is it? ELIZABETH: Um- It's a travel backpack. It's green and gray. It's got my name on it and my information. WILLIAM: And you couldn't find it?

Cys>ELIZABETH: No, it didn't turn up at the baggage claim.Cys>
